Ronald McDonald House Charities® Greater Houston

Family Activities Volunteer

Purpose of the Role

The Family Activities Volunteer plays a vital role in supporting the Family Activities Program, which is dedicated to creating joyful memories, celebrating milestones, and offering a sense of normalcy for families navigating challenging circumstances. By fostering a warm and welcoming environment, volunteers help transform the space into a "home away from home," where families can find comfort, connection, and a reprieve from daily stresses.

Description of the Role

Volunteers facilitate pre-planned activities such as crafts, games, and other engaging programs designed to bring families together and create meaningful experiences. They work directly with patients and their families, providing a supportive atmosphere that encourages creativity, fun, and togetherness. Whether helping with setup, guiding participants through activities, or sharing a laugh during a game, the Family Activities Volunteer is an essential part of delivering comfort and joy to families.

This role may be a good fit for you if you have the following qualifications:

- Experience working with children is a plus.
- Ability to speak other languages
- Energetic and enthusiastic
- Ability to connect with families and children from diverse cultural backgrounds.
- Comfortable engaging with families of seriously ill children.
- Creative and open to hands-on activities like arts, crafts, and games.
- Confident leading small group activities in a family-friendly setting.
